ALAIN FRANCO

Alain Franco was born in Antwerp. He studied piano and music theory in Belgium and Tel-Aviv and obtained a post-graduate masters degree at the IRCAM-EHESS Institute of Paris. His genuine interest for contemporary music and art (both as pianist and conductor) has resulted in collaborations with leading ensembles and musicians in Europe. In addition, he progressively developed an original reflection on theatrical issues regarding essential questions about stage representation and practice. This led to artistic collaborations with performers, choreographers and theatre directors, such as Anne Teresa De Keersmaeker, Meg Stuart, Thomas Plischke, Romeo Castellucci and Isabelle Schäd. He is currently working on several projects in Belgium, Germany and France.
